Definitions

Training and assessment strategy means a framework that guides the learning requirements and the teaching, training and assessment arrangements of a VET qualification. It is the document that outlines the macro-level requirements of the learning and assessment process.<sup>1</sup>

Assessment means the process of collecting evidence and making judgements on whether competency has been achieved, to confirm that an individual can perform to the standard expected in the workplace. This is expressed by the relevant endorsed industry/enterprise competency standards of a Training Package or by the learning outcomes of a VET accredited course.<sup>1</sup>

A Traineeship using User Choice Funding.

The User Choice program provides public funding for the delivery of accredited, entry level training to apprentices and trainees.

The program works in conjunction with the Commonwealth Australian Apprenticeships System, under which apprentices and trainees enter into legally binding training contracts with their employers and receive structured training to achieve a nationally recognised qualification.

Registered training organisations provide students with training that result in qualifications and statements of attainment that are recognised and accepted by industry and other registered training organisations throughout Australia.

The Queensland User Choice program enables trainees and their employers to select a preferred Registered Training Organisation (RTO) from a list of Pre-Qualified Suppliers for the delivery of accredited training to meet their specific needs. Prior to sign up a student should understand the Multiple Governments Contribution section of the User Choice Policy and its implications on the student obtaining funding for additional qualifications. Information about User Choice is available at www.training.qld.gov.au.

Through User Choice, the employer and the trainee, have the ability to select a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) to meet their needs. There are many RTO's offering different styles of training delivery. Careers Training Centre delivers training in small groups, works with the employer and trainee one on one or in blocks of time that met the needs of the employer and trainee. Training is focused on developing the skill and knowledge required and combining this with practical application in the workplace. Careers Training Centre will discuss with the employer what best suits their needs and work with them to tailor training that best fits those needs.

The Australian Apprenticeship Centre will be able to supply a list of registered training organisation that are available in your area to deliver accredited training. Contact www.apprenticeshipsinfo.qld.gov.au or find your local Training Queensland office (in Quick links menu) or phone 1800 210 210.

It is very important that you read and understand the terms and conditions of the training agreement and prior to signing for a qualification or traineeship that students understand the Multiple Government Contributions section of the User Choice Policy.

The Australian Apprenticeship Centre (AAC) will register the training contact between all the parties with the State Government and provide information regarding the responsibilities of the employer and trainee. A training plan will be completed within 30 days and training will commence. We will visit the employer in the workplace and develop this training plan with the employer and trainee. Each unit within the training plan will have a state and finish date for completion. The training plan helps the employer and trainee to understand what is expected during the traineeship and how training will be provided as well as setting what it is that will be learnt and how this will be demonstrated. It outlines what the trainee will learn, where the traineeship will be trained, how it will be trained, and how and when the trainee will be assessed.

Tuition fee are applicable on all traineeship and this will be discussed with the employer and trainee. It is the responsibility of the trainee to pay all tuition fees and the cost will be advised when the training plan is completed. Trainees attend structured training regularly and employers will be regularly advised of the trainees' progression in their traineeship.

Cost of training

There may be costs involved with your traineeship for the employer and the trainee. The Australian Apprenticeship Centre (AAC) will be able to advise an employer of the level of funding available under the accredited qualification. Student tuition fees may be applicable and the cost will be advised when a training plan is completed.

Under the user Choice contact employers and students have a 30 day probation period. A probation period of time is when the apprentice or trainee works and trains with their employer before each decides whether to continue with the traineeship. If both parties decide to continue they work together until you achieve all necessary skills. Should either party wish to terminate the contract they must apply in writing to the Department of Education, Training and Employment (DETE) to cancel the training contract.

This could be mutually agreeable between all parties or a one party cancellation request.

Once the traineeship has past the probationary period, the employer and trainee are bound by the terms and conditions of the contract. This contact will be confirmed in writing by the Department of Education, Training and Employment (DETE) and a copy should be supplied to the Registered Training Organisation.

Award

Upon successful completion of all units of competencies in the course, students will be issued with a Certificate III in Hospitality. Should a student not complete the entire course, then a Statement of Attainment will be given for the units successfully completed.

This assessment allows CTC to assess the student's competency with literacy and numeracy standards, to then design assessment tasks that support the student learning style, as well as offering ongoing mentoring and support services when required. If assistance is required in any of these areas, this will be discussed with you and one-on-one assistance will be arranged to suit your needs.

For further information, please refer to the Student Handbook and support services available.

Unique Student Identifier (USI)

As of the 1st January 2015, any student who is undertaking Nationally Accredited Training with a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) will need to have a Unique Student Identifier (USI).

At your induction, Careers Training Centre will give you the 'Australian Government – Department of Industries Skills Fact Sheet'. This will explain what the USI is, how to obtain one and what it is used for.

For further information, go to www.usi.gov.au

DELIVERY OF THE COURSE

The Certificate III in Hospitality is delivered by on-the-job training, off-the-job training, and by the 'self paced' method of learning, which allows you greater flexibility in choosing the times you study and the time it takes you to complete the course. The final decision about satisfactory demonstration of performance outcomes are made as a joint decision by the SRTTO and the employer prior to the final judgement of competence by the assessor.

Students are able to request tutorials and one on one tutoring and /or mentoring by discussing their needs with a trainer or assessor. Times and location for accessing these services will be by mutual agreement and allows students to balance their personal commitments with their study and training needs.

Some units have Pre Requisites that must be completed prior to the undertaking of another unit. The course outline indicates which units have pre requisites and the trainer and assessor will place these in the training sequence on the students training plan and record book.

TRAINING AND ASSESSMENT ARRANGEMENTS

Duration: Full time students, the expected completion time is an 18-month period. With training 3 hours weekly.

Full time students, the expected completion time is an 18-month period with training 3 hours weekly and weekly tutorials available to all students. The program will be delivered through class-based tasks, on the job projects, research assignments that will build technical and legislative knowledge that will be balanced with the practical aspects of the of your industry environment.

Some assessments may be assessed in the workplace environment, on excursions, in role plays and/or scenarios or any combination of these. Evidence of 36 shifts completed within the Hospitality workplace environment is essential to the completion of this certificate.

The training and assessment environment will access specific resources and operations in your workplace as part of the assessment process. This will be discussed with you and your employer prior to assessment and is detailed in the individual units of your course. The units are suitable for the assessor to contextualise to local industry activities so that work place activities and responsibilities link to units of study.

Trainers will meet with trainees and employers to negotiate choice of electives and delivery schedule to match units to workplace activities, contextualising the delivery to the learner / workplace.

Some units have Pre Requisites that must be completed prior to the undertaking of another unit. The course outline indicates which units have pre requisites and the trainer and assessor will place these in the training sequence on the students training plan and record book. All pre-requisites for accredited units must be trained and assessed prior to the start of training for the required unit. Students must gain competency in the pre-requisite unit prior to the start of training for the unit with the pre-requisite.

Careers Training Centre has established agreements with local industry to host training and assessments for students so that they gain the required skill and knowledge with the required resources, in a practical manner and meet the requirements under the training and assessment Vocational Education and Training packing rules for hospitality employees who do not have the required resources necessary in their workplaces.

Businesses who have agreed to allow the businesses to be used for training and assessment are;

- Practical tasks
- Group work
- Activities in simulated work environments
- Trainers will work with the student's employer to ensure that training and the duties undertaken in the workplace support the learning process.
- Tutorials are available for student

Careers Training Centre will ensure learners have every reasonable opportunity to complete their training program.

Course structure

Careers Training Centre will integrate the activities, bringing together a number of units that reflect real industry outcomes and processes. Trainers will meet with trainees and employers to negotiate choice of electives and delivery schedule to match units to workplace activities, contextualising the delivery to the learner / workplace.

Set out below are a series of defined activities that a team of participants and individuals achieve in a simulated work environment, providing the framework for industry-relevant learning. This course will be delivered through integration with other units of competency, rather than as a stand-alone learning program.

Some units have pre-requisites that must be trained and assessed prior to the start of training for another required unit. Students must gain competency in the pre-requisite unit prior to the start of training for the unit with the pre-requisite. These units are marked with * to indicate one or more pre-requisites apply.

Training and assessment techniques or tools used to gather evidence assessment.

Throughout training, students will develop new skills and knowledge and combined with their duties and activities in the workplace students, over time, gain recognition of the skills they demonstrate.

All pre-requisites for accredited units must be trained and assessed prior to the start of training for the required unit. Students must gain competency in the pre-requisite unit prior to the start of training for the unit with the pre-requisite.

Assessors have flexibility (according to the requirements of the Training Package and units of competency) in selecting which techniques or tools they will use to gather sufficient evidence, in a range of contexts, to make a decision (including RPL).

Note: this is a guide only and further detail can be found in the Staff Assessment Guidelines:

An assessment tool includes the following components:

- The context and conditions for the assessment.
- The tasks to be administered to the candidate,
- An outline of the evidence to be gathered from the candidate
- The evidence criteria used to judge the quality of performance (i.e. the assessment decision-making rules).
- The administration, recording and reporting requirements.

The following matrix gives a general overview of some of the techniques or tools that will be used to gather evidence towards competency to enable judgments to be made about students' competency in each unit.

Credit Transfer (CT)

Credit Transfer is supplying the documentation to support the skill and knowledge you have previously gained in transfer of supported documentation. This means that you don't have to complete a competency again if you have already completed it previously. If you have completed an accredited qualification or recognised units of study with a Registered Training Organisation, you may be eligible for a credit transfer.

Trainers will need to review if your accredited qualification or recognised units are still within a current training package or are equivalent to the current training package or units. Discuss your previous educational qualifications with your trainer to see if this is a possibility for you.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

The objective of the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) for the Vocational Education and Training system is to ensure that an individual's prior learning achieved through formal and informal training, work experience or other life experiences is appropriately recognised.

RPL assessment collects evidence of learning that has occurred outside the formal education and training system. The RPL process is a more personal process involving the assessor collecting evidence and aligning the evidence to the requirements of the accredited course or training package qualification. Students may request an RPL Application Form for more than one unit.

What RPL is Not!

Using the RPL process is not an easy way to get a qualification. It is not a matter of time served or amounts of experience but the specific and relevant learning which is assessed according to the prescribed Competency Standards. Applicants need to be committed to supporting their case by locating and providing suitable evidence and documentation as required by the Careers Training Centre.

ref: www.training.gov.au – SIT training package

Each of these assessment pathways leads to full recognition of competencies held – the critical issue is that the candidate is competent, not how the competency was acquired.

Employability skills are integral to achieving workplace competency. Delivery and assessment of the training and assessment will be undertaken in an integrated and holistic way, as represented diagrammatically below.

TRAINING AND STAFF

Trainers and assessors are qualified, and have a minimum of 5 years industry experience, Minimum TAE40104 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment, Current Blue Card and have completed a Fit and Proper Person Form. All experience and qualifications are verified and copied on their staff files. A staff profile and units of competency are reviewed annually to assess skills and knowledge, to ensure it remains current and accurate. Professional development to maintain currency in training and assessment as well as industry experience is planned and regularly scheduled with all staff.

ENVIRONMENT AND RESOURCES

Some units within the Certificate III in Hospitality will require specific resources and environments for training and assessment.

The tourism, travel and hospitality industries have determined the assessment requirements for:

- Environments – where the unit must be assessed
- Equipment – what large and small equipment must be used
- Workplace documentation – what types of workplace resources and documents must be available
- Interaction with customers, team members and other people – who must be involved

The following list details the requirements of the resources and equipment for each of the assessment environments specified within each unit of competency. Additional resource requirements may apply for specific units of competency; these are listed within the assessment unit of each student.

All employers will be required to assist with an assessment of their workplace to ensure that their students are able to access the environments and equipment required for their units of study. Vocational placement may be offered to students whose workplace is unable to provide the full range of equipment or the environment required under the training package requirements. The Vocational Education, Training and Employment Act 2000 and allows a student to be placed in a work environment to provide the student with practical training and experience that is required under, and is an assessable part of, the student's course. A vocational placement is generally an appropriate option for students who would not otherwise have sufficient access to the facilities, equipment and range of work necessary to develop and consolidate their skills to the level required of the course/qualification.

CTC acknowledges that not all businesses will have the complete range of specified resources and will work with other businesses for students to access the resources necessary for their unit of study. Careers Training Centre has the resources of the CaPTA Group of Companies to draw upon as a major local employer and industry tourism leader to assist employers.

Requirements for the following environments are detailed below:

- Accommodation
- Front office
- Events
- Office environment (for tourism, travel and events)
- Operational commercial bar
- Operational commercial cellar
- Operational commercial kitchen; mainstream and asian
- Operational food preparation area
- Operational pastry kitchen
- Operational restaurant or food and beverage outlet
- Touring environment

All trainers and assessors have access to the units of competency, assessment guidelines and qualification packaging rules from the training package at web site: <http://training.gov.au/>

Specific per-person equipment ratios specified in the following lists relate to the availability of these resources for the purposes of assessment. It is assumed that the same piece of equipment may be accessed by multiple candidates at different times.

Generic equipment required for all units within a competency field is divided into:

- fixtures and large equipment
- small and electronic equipment
- stock
- cleaning equipment and materials
- workplace documentation

Workplace Documentation

To avoid duplication of generic workplace documents such as policies and procedures, a general list is provided at the end of the environmental tables.

Customers

People working in the tourism, travel and hospitality industries have daily contact with customers which can be face-to-face, via the telephone or electronic communication. All people working in the service industries must be able to interact with business to business or direct customers. The industry sets high standards for quality customer service and this is reflected throughout the units of competency.

Units describe situations, like these examples below, where service industry personnel are required to:

- provide professional and personalised customer service experiences to meet and exceed the expectations of a variety of customers
- communicate with a diverse range of customers to provide a total quality service experience
- resolve difficult customer service situations and complaints
- demonstrate professional service industry behaviour and accepted service standards
- complete service within commercial time constraints and designated response times so that all customers are served effectively

It is vital, and therefore a requirement of many units, that students undertaking training and assessment have access to customers with whom they can interact.

Customers in Real Industry Workplaces

Wherever assessments are conducted in the workplace, customers must participate in the selling and or delivery of the product or service. They would, by nature, be paying for the product or service provided by a commercial business.

Customers in Simulated Industry Environments

Most units allow for simulated situations including the involvement of customers.

For this qualification a customer being served in a simulated industry environment such as a training bar or restaurant is defined as follows:

A customer is a person or organisation who utilises a product or service and expects the product and service to be of equivalent standard to that provided in a commercial business. They may be paying for the product or service or be invited to participate as a guest.

Customers must participate in the sale and or delivery of the product or service. There must be sufficient customer traffic that accurately reflects the complexity of the role and allows candidates to deal with multiple tourism, hospitality or events sales, service or operational tasks simultaneously. Trainers and Assessor will discuss students' needs with all employers to ensure that all necessary resources are available for student to gain competency in their selected units.

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

Continuous improvement is based upon assessment validation as per Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015.

Internal review procedure

All stakeholder feedback is collected and analysed and information reported to the Management Team. Feedback forms are analysed monthly and yearly and reported to the Chairman as part of the monthly reporting structure. This feedback is reported back to trainers and assessors as part of the continuous improvement process monthly and used in the annual performance review for all Careers Training Centre trainers and assessors.

- Feedback is ongoing and consistent with all stakeholders
- Student career pathways are documented in the Student Handbook

Student Feedback

Your Feedback is really important to us!

We really appreciate your feedback. Let us know what is important to you. We have two (2) feedback forms to be completed by students:

1. AQF Survey

On completion or withdrawal from your Certificate III in Captive Animals, Careers Training Centre has an online link for students and employers to complete their AQTF surveys. You may enter your feedback through this link. <http://mastersit.com.au/vidatek/wp/index.php/learner/rto/capta>. You can also contact us on Email careers@capta.com.au or on our Website and download a feedback form: www.careerstrainingcentre.com

2. CTC Student Feedback

You can complete this feedback form online through this link https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1oLZWCcN\_XN\_NuoQj-jJ18YWWmAlV3adnQv9nBWxXilc/viewform?c=0&w=1

If you are concerned about something or wish to identify things we can change or improve a feedback form or questionnaire can be completed. We will ask you several times during the time you spend completing training with us to give us formal feedback. What was good / what was not? Feedback and questionnaires are part of maintaining consistency and best practices for us, so we take them very seriously. We encourage all students to provide feedback and have feedback forms available for students and employers to complete.

Student Data Storage and Security

All information is managed and held by Careers Training Centre and no third party has access to student information unless the student authorises the release of this information or the information is released under legislative requirements as advised in student hand book and sign up procedures.

Information is secured by password security and backup information is stored in an encrypted format for student protection.

What is assessment validation?

Assessment validation involves 'reviewing, comparing and evaluating assessment processes, tools and evidence contributing to judgements made by a range of assessors against the same standards'

What are the benefits

Assessment validation facilitates processes leading to consistent and valid assessment. In particular, validation activities:

- ensure that assessment strategies meet the needs of clients;
- facilitate the professional development of assessors;
- enable enterprises and other stakeholders to contribute to assessment processes;
- provide a means of gathering feedback and identifying ways of improving assessment processes;
- facilitate consistent interpretation of competency standards;
- foster the development of informal networks and provide assessors with access to up-to-date information about what is happening in their industry;
- Help assessors working across the industry to apply consistent standards and make consistent judgements.

These processes build assessors' confidence and industry acceptance of the outcomes of the national training system.

Validation is a quality review process. It involves checking that the assessment tool produced valid, reliable, sufficient, current and authentic evidence to enable reasonable judgements to be made as to whether the requirements of the relevant aspects of the Training Package or accredited course have been met. It includes reviewing and making recommendations for future improvements to the assessment tool, process and / or outcomes. (Source: Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015)

Assessment validation includes, but goes beyond, assessment moderation and includes Industry Consultation.

Industry consultation

Those consulted must be current in the industry and the consultation should have a clear impact on the strategy for training and assessment

Validation process

Training and assessment strategies and assessment items are reviewed annually by industry personnel as well as other stakeholders, including other trainers and assessors and comments for continual improvements are noted.

Moderation

At Careers Training Centre, moderation is a quality assurance process directed at ensuring that assessments are marked with accuracy, consistency and fairness. Moderation can be effected through several methods and is part of the Quality Assessment Cycle. It includes the entire assessment event, including the design and post-event analysis of the fitness of the assessment of student learning.

Moderation is required for every assessment which involves a degree of subjectivity.

- Assessments are designed so that they are clearly linked to the intended learning outcomes;
- Pre-marking meetings or other activities are undertaken to ensure that assessors are able to clarify their understanding of the assessment criteria;
- Assessment criteria are clearly communicated to students, both in the pre-assessment phase and also when providing feedback; and
- Assessments are subject to regular review: their frequency, style and the relative success rate of students are appraised as a regular part of the improvement cycle

Moderation of Assessment
Moderation is conducted annually with other trainers and assessors as part of the moderation process. All assessment instruments are reviewed to ensure they are appropriate for the units of competency and reflect information contained in the elements, performance criteria, range of variables and evidence guide.
